GYPSIES CHLOROFORM VICTIM

Cattle Dealer Robbed of $160; Gypsies Make Get Away

Beware of the gypsy bands if you meet them in town or on the road and especially do not stop to talk with them if you are driving a car for the notorious band of rovers has adopted a new manner in which to put your horse to combat in a twinkling of an eye and then relieving you of your valuables. Here is the latest method:

Saturday afternoon as Charles Wietting a cattle buyer of Joliet was driving down the highway near the Swedish Orphans Home at Joliet he met an auto load of gypsies. One of the gypsy women jumped on the running board of his car and asked to be directed to the country club. When Mr. Wietting opened the door of his closed car he claims the gypsy shoved a rag saturated with chloroform under his nose and put him to sleep. When he awoke the gypsies were gone and he went home in a dazed condition. He told his wife about his experience and when she asked him if he had been robbed he began to remember that he had $160 in his pocket when he met the gypsy, but when he examined his pockets he found he had been robbed of every cent. He at once got in touch with Sheriff John Walker who telephoned to the surrounding towns to halt any gypsies who might appear. Deputy Walter Fisher of Mokena received a call from the Sheriff about three o'clock. He at once notified Deputy John Frisch and both officers were on the lookout. They did not have to wait long before a Dodge car loaded with gypsies came to town. They immediately arrested the band and took them to the police station. They had hardly got them locked up before a big Cadillac 8 drove in sight. They came through town at about 50 miles an hour headed eastward and Deputies Fisher and Frisch and several others jumped into Deputy Fisher's car and overtook the big car on the other side of the Rock Island tracks at the Capital crossing east of town. They brought the gypsies back. Sheriff Walker was notified by phone that the two gypsy bands were being held at Mokena. The Mokena officials had also notified the officers at Tinley Park, Orland and Frankfort to be on the lookout for gypsies.

Sheriff John Walker, a deputy and Mr. Wietting arrived they looked over the gypsies but Mr. Wietting was unable to identify them as the same ones who had robbed him, so on the orders of Sheriff Walker the bands were turned loose. Just as they were ready to leave the driver of the Cadillac car was fined for speeding. Judge John F. Schultz assessed a fine of $25 and costs, making a total of $31, which was promptly paid and the gypsies hurriedly left town. Shortly afterward Tinley Park called Deputy Fisher saying they were holding some gypsies in a Dodge car and Deputy Fisher said to release them as these were the Sheriff's orders. He had hardly given this order when the daughter of Mr. Wietting called up from Joliet saying to hold the gypsies in the Dodge car as they were the ones who had robbed her father. Deputy Fisher immediately called the Tinley Park officer asking him to hold the gypsies but they had just been released and were heading for Homewood so the matter was dropped and Mr. Wietting was out his $160.

Moral: Do not stop your car for any stranger, especially gypsies. Beware of the gypsy as you would a pest.

Tinley Park Will Stage Municipal Celebration

Tinley Park is preparing for a big municipal celebration when the concrete road through here is completed. Mayor Wyman states that plans are being made for a big dance on the new pavement. The Public Service Co. will line the streets with electric lights and there will be all kinds of stands strung along the side of the street selling ice cream, soft drinks, etc. A band will be engaged to furnish plenty of music.

Tickets for the dance will be sold and the money thus raised will be used for buying oil with which to oil the side streets of the village. The new pavement will probably be completed within another month or six weeks. Work is being pushed as rapidly as possible on the south end.

Only 99c A Year For Religious Education

The Homer Sunday School Convention was held Sunday afternoon at the Mokena M. E. church. There was a good attendance. The session was opened by the president, Mrs. Arthur Lauffer, who also served as chairman of the meeting.

Prof. Edward S. Boyer, head of the religious training department of the Chicago Training School was the chief speaker. He brought out a number of vital and salient facts. He showed that the public school spends $63 per year per pupil for educational purposes whereas the Sunday School only spends 99 cents a year per pupil for religious training or education. He further pointed out that statistics show that the church puts about $1 per year in the Sunday School whereas the Sunday school puts back $11 per year into the church treasury. This fact should be reversed, Prof. Boyer stated. He further pointed out that the Sunday school has too often been looked upon as a secondary part of the church, whereas it is the most vital part of any church, for a church can only exist if the children are given the proper religious instruction and training. He further showed that today there is a great need for more religious training, a feature which most churches have neglected all too long.

Rev. Brown, pastor of the Marley Baptist church stated that the name 'Sunday School' ought to be abolished and the name 'Bible School' used instead for the reason that the present name suggests that the school is held on Sunday only. As a matter of fact he said the Sunday school or Bible school should meet every day and the pupils given religious instructions along the same lines as the public school carries on its course of studies.

An interesting program was presented. Miss Maude Sayers of New Lenox played an instrumental solo. Loren Sass of Marley gave a recitation. Solos were sung by Miss Velma Kloss of Mokena and Mrs. Frank J. Kohlhaugen of Frankfort. Readings were given by Rev. Mangus of the Mokena M. E. church and Miss Katherine Owen of Frankfort.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. Geo. Andrews, Frankfort; Vice-president, Mrs. Wm. Semmler, Mokena; Secretary, Miss Maude Sayers, New Lenox; and Treasurer, Miss Minnie Handorf, Marley.

The next convention will be held next May at the Frankfort M. E. church.

Big Delegation From Tinley at Ind. Klan Meet

Many Tinley Park Klansmen attended the great Klan gathering at Valpraiso last Saturday. It is said this was the greatest gathering of Klansmen ever held in this country. There were 47,000 robed and hooded Klansmen, 17,000 autos, 22 bands and in all a crowd over 150,000 people. In spite of this great number of people everything went off as orderly as a Sunday school picnic. There was a huge parade three miles long. Two gigantic fiery crosses 85 feet high were lit at night and could be seen for many miles. Nationally known speakers addressed the great gathering. Those attending from Tinley Park were: Dr. W. C. Van Wormer, Dr. C. Scheer, Louis Lippincott, Rudolph Hug, Edward Reiber, John Rauhoff, the Rev. Elmer D. Palmer and about 50 others. The trip being made in autos.

Mokena Will Have Memorial Program Next Wed. May 30

Thru the efforts of the News-Bulletin Mokena will have a Memorial program next Wednesday in the basement of the new St. John Evangelical church, the exercises beginning in the afternoon at 2 o'clock standard time.

Prof. Brown, principal of the Mokena school will be the chairman of the day. Attorney Wm. Faulkner, one of the ablest lawyers in Joliet, will be the speaker of the day. The school children, a ladies quartet, Leon Tonn and others will furnish the musical part of the program. Every one in Mokena is asked to attend the exercises and honor our soldiers. Remember the date, Wednesday, May 30 and tell your friends.

Following the exercises the school children will decorate the graves of the soldiers with flags and flowers.

New Lenox Has Completed Annual Memorial Program

The annual New Lenox Memorial Day program will be held at M. E. church next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock standard time. Rev. Hastings of the Central Presbyterian church Joliet, will be the speaker of the day. A musical program will also be rendered. At the close of the church exercises a parade will form in front of the church and march to Maplewood cemetery where the graves of the soldiers will be decorated with flags and flowers by the school children. Rev. Hamilton will give an address at the centaph. Guy Knickerbocker will fire the salute.

Frankfort Will Honor War Heroes

Attorney Elmer H. Bielfeldt of Joliet has been engaged as the speaker of the day for the Memorial exercises at Frankfort next Wednesday. The program will be held at the school grounds at one o'clock standard time. The local band, choir and quartet will furnish the musical program. The school children will decorate the graves of the soldiers in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

Old Tinley Park Landmark Doomed

George Schreiber, well known shoe maker of Tinley Park, is also planning to do his part in the improvement of Tinley Park by the erection of a new shoe shop sometime this summer. The present building is an old landmark of Tinley Park. It was built before the Rock Island railroad came through here and was used as a store, saloon and post office in the early days. In its early existence it saw some of the palmy days of the pioneer country. Whiskey was sold in it at 25c a gallon. Such a thing as prohibition was not even thought of at that time.

Public Notice

The public is hereby notified to refrain from dumping rubbish along the highways in Orland township as has been done of late as there is a heavy fine provided against this practice by a state law. Any further violations will be promptly and vigorously prosecuted. Wm. T. BRAGLEY, HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER TOWN OF ORLAND

Hot Fight Waged On Marketing Bill

Editor, Mokena News-Bulletin: Senate Bill No. 165, the Co-operative Marketing Act went to third reading in the Assembly on Wednesday, May 16th, carrying the following amendments as adopted upon Wednesday, May 9th:

Section 10 H. was amended by addition of the following lines: "Provided however, that members or stockholders of corporations or associations which accept the provisions of this act shall not be required against their will to execute Marketing contracts with such corporation or association to sell their products to or through same."

This amendment eliminated the possibility of forcing stockholders of existing associations such as the Milk Producers Co-operative Marketing Co. of Chicago, to sign contracts and sell their milk through that company against their will.

Section 10 was also amended by inserting in substance as follows:

After the word "collection" on line 25, "Provided, however, that no stockholder of an existing corporation or association shall be required to pay annual dues."

Section 26 was amended as follows:

In line 3 by striking out the word "majority" and inserting the word "unanimous" also in line 7 by striking out the word "majority" and inserting the word "unanimous". This important change of wording was accomplished only after one of the greatest floor battles heard at this session of the legislature. Homer J. Tice of Menard County, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee reporting the bill favorably to the House, took the floor and spilled language enough to stretch from New York to China in an effort to prevent the adoption of this amendment to Section 26. Representative Frank McCarthy of Elgin, who introduced the amendment for our Association made several fine talks in defense of the Chicago fluid milk producers' position in demanding that this important amendment be adopted. Under the terms of the bill as offered, minority stockholders or members of existing corporations or associations could be forced to come under the provisions of the act against their will. This meant that the Wis. condensing districts with their majority membership might vote the Illinois stockholder or member of the Milk Producers Co-operative Marketing Co. under the provisions and penalties of the act against their will.

The adoption of this amendment above mentioned, was well worth the time, money and energy devoted by members of our Milk Producers Association in this great fight to retain the right to free and independent citizenship granted them under the constitution and to say whether or not they should be forced to dance to the out of tune music played by the officers of the Chicago Milk Producers Co-operative Marketing Co., for the rest of their lives, or 50 years as provided in the Bill.

When the roll call on this amendment to 26 was reported, it is said that President Williams of the Marketing Co., nearly fell out of the balcony and the Farm Bureau officials who were for the Sapiro drawn Act without our amendments, regardless of what their members wanted in the matter, and who continually haunted the Assembly Chamber, plainly showed their disappointment. Streaks which look suspiciously like tear stains were visible upon the cheeks of Mr. Gregory of the Prairie Farmer. Soon after the result of that roll call was announced he looked like he'd lost his meal ticket.

Tinley Park Mayor Gives Pertinent Facts In Address

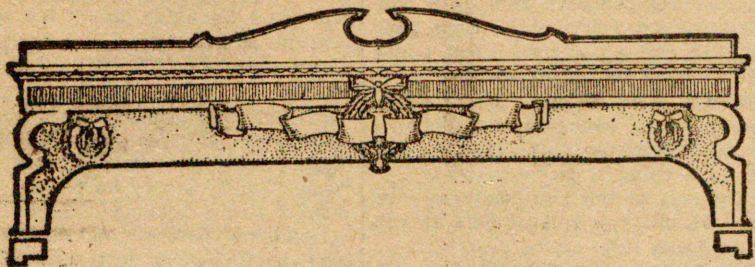

The following inaugural address was made by mayor H. W. Wyman of Tinley Park a week ago:

Mr. President, Members of the Board and Fellow Citizens:

As I look upon this gathering of our townspeople assembled here upon this occasion tonight, I feel as though I should be capable of making an oratorical effort that would ring in your ears long and loud, but being just merely a plain citizen among you, a man engaged in the ordinary walks of business life who has only the best interests of our village at heart and not being a talented or an accomplished orator, I shall therefore ask that you be patient in listening to the few remarks I will make. I am pleased to see so many of our good citizens present this evening. Does it mean that we are beginning to anticipate a new era in our village and that you have all come out to help fire the first bomb? I am satisfied that your presence clearly indicates the interest you manifest in the upbuilding and general welfare of our community or you would not be here. I shall take the liberty at this time to speak in behalf of the Trustees here who comprise your board and myself in extending a most cordial invitation to all the people of Tinley Park to come out to meet with us at our future meetings, the same as a great many have done tonight, and with the aid of your council help us to dispose of such matters of importance as may present themselves from time to time. These meetings are held regularly in this village hall and we shall all be glad to have you.

Some of us who are here before you, have just passed thru a rather strenuous campaign although slightly disfigured we are still in the ring and I must say that I have about reached the conclusion that some of our larger cities have nothing on Tinley Park when it comes to real political enthusiasm. I want to thank all the ladies and gentlemen of Tinley Park who so liberally supported me in this race and I want to say that I have only the most kindly feeling for those who thru some misunderstanding did not support me, but many who have since seen the error of their ways and who if they had to do it over again in all probability be with me heart and soul. I want to assure you all that I will try and make you feel that you have made no mistake in your selection, but that you have elected the best

Washington Sidelights

Poison Gases May Be Health Agents

WASHINGTON.—Experts of the Chemical Warfare Service believe that the possibility of curing influenza, tuberculosis, paresis and other afflictions, by the use of poison gases has been demonstrated by experiments now being conducted at Edgewood arsenal, near Baltimore.

It is asserted that through experiments with chlorine gas, the chemists have established that epidemics of grip and colds may be checked almost instantly by the introduction of weak concentrations of the gas into the rooms occupied by those exposed.

That mustard gas is a specific for tuberculosis apparently seems to be demonstrated by the experiments conducted under the direction of Lieut. Col. Edward B. Veeder of the Army Medical corps. Guinea pigs, inoculated with tuberculosis germs and a concentration of mustard gas were apparently rendered immune by the gas and failed to contract the disease. An equal number of guinea pigs, inoculated with tuberculosis germs, and not subjected to the mustard gas treatment, contracted the disease.

As a result of experiments with the burning gas known as lewisite, the chemists have evolved what appears to be a remedy, if not a cure, for paresis and locomotor ataxia. Lewisite is composed of arsenic and acetylene gas. Dr. Loevenhart of the University of Wisconsin has been studying the effects of lewisite upon the human system in conjunction with the chemists at Edgewood arsenal. He has the records of 42 persons committed to insane hospitals with paresis, which have come under this treatment. Of that number 21 have been cured and have left the hospital and taken up lucrative employment and seven bid fair to be discharged as soon as a cure is effected.

The fact that chlorine might be used to prevent or cure colds, influenza and pneumonia was demonstrated during the war at Edgewood arsenal by accident. It was remarked that cases of influenza or pneumonia did not occur among the workers in the department of the laboratory where chlorine was being made although 10 to 20 per cent of others on duty at the arsenal were victims. Investigation showed that in the rooms where chlorine gas was being made there was a slight leakage of chlorine, just enough to act as a germicidal agent.

Following out this idea, the chemical warfare service and the medical department have made great advances on this line and it is now believed practicable to introduce small quantities of chlorine into school rooms, factories, churches and other places where persons gather.

Harding Deals Himself a Pair of Aces

THE Washington government is looking forward very hopefully to a restoration of diplomatic relations with the republic of Mexico in the near future. The appointment of the joint international commission to discuss terms of agreement between the two countries is known to be a matter in which President Harding personally takes great pride.

President Harding is understood to have had much to do in a personal way in bringing about the understanding with the Mexican government, which led up to the naming of the commission. He has been giving the matter very close attention.

The choice of the American commissioners, Charles B. Warren of Michigan, former ambassador to Japan, and John Barton Payne of Chicago, who will represent the United States in the negotiations, also is the work of the President, although both are known to be perfectly satisfactory to Secretary of State Hughes.

Both the American commissioners have distinguished records of public service. Mr. Warren's most important work was in connection with his post at Tokio to which he was appointed in June, 1921. He conducted much of the negotiations in connection with participation of Japan in the Washington arms conference and more recently took part in the exchanges which led to abrogation of the Lansing-Ishii agreement.

Mr. Warren has been engaged in the practice of law in Detroit since 1893. He was associate justice for the United States before the joint high commission to determine the Behring sea claims in 1896.

In 1910 he was counsel for the United States in the north Atlantic fisheries arbitration with Great Britain before the Hague tribunal. He is a Republican, having been a member of the Republican national committee and executive committee since 1912.

During the war he served with distinction in the judge advocate general's department of the army, entering the service as a major in April, 1917, and being discharged as a colonel in February, 1919. He was awarded the distinguished service medal.

John Barton Payne, also a lawyer by profession, is a Democrat in politics.

For many years he practiced law in Chicago and served as a judge of the Superior court, Cook county, Illinois, from 1893 to 1898. In 1917 he became general counsel of the United States shipping board, Emergency Fleet corporation. Mr. Payne then became counsel to the director general of railroads, serving from 1918 to 1919. For the year following he served as chairman of the United States shipping board.

From February, 1920 until March 4, 1921, he was secretary of the interior in the cabinet of President Wilson. On October 1, 1921, Mr. Payne was appointed by President Harding as chairman of the American Red Cross.

Marine Band Is a National Institution

ONE of the most remarkable institutions of official Washington is the United States Marine band, generally regarded as the finest organization of the sort in the world. Now that radio can carry music to every corner of the country the playing of the Marine band promises to be better known than in all the 125 eventful years of its existence.

The early history of the band suggests the daredevil side of the well-known marine corps temperament. President John Adams established a marine corps in 1798 and authorized as a part of it sixteen drummers and sixteen fifers. This little fife and drum corps was the beginning of the Marine band, but the band remained in that insignificant stage only a short time.

In 1802, during the wars with the Barbary pirates, Capt. Daniel McNeill brought the frigate Boston to port at Messina, Italy. Word went out that Americans were in port and a regimental band of the city came aboard to show the "wild men" from the United States what good music was. The marines were appreciative of the Italians' skill, so appreciative, in fact, that Captain McNeill impulsively tripped anchor and set out for America with his guests. The thirteen kidnapped musicians were frantic but helpless.

When the ship reached the United States the Navy department promptly expressed its official disapproval of Captain McNeill's system of recruiting musicians. Records of all this were lost when the British burned Washington in 1814. It is known, however, that the government was in no hurry to return the fine musicians to Italy. They were put on duty at the marine barracks at Washington, where no doubt they taught the American musicians and served as an inspiration. Certainly the Marine band was playing in good form the next year, for an old order book of the marine corps shows that the band was to play at the presidential reception at the White House, New Year's day, 1804.

From this earliest period of its career this band has been regularly associated with state functions. Gradually a Marine band tradition was built up until now no great official ceremony or celebration is complete without it.

It has played in the inaugural parade of every president since Thomas Jefferson, in 1801. It never leaves the United States.

H. C. L. Has Advanced Canal Protocols

STRONG opposition in Costa Rica is preventing approval by the national assembly of that country of the protocol with the United States providing that in event an interoceanic canal is built in Central America the rights of Costa Rica in the San Juan river would be made the subject of special negotiations.

This protocol was agreed to and signed by Secretary Hughes and the Costa Rican minister, Rafael Oreamuno, during the progress of the recent Central American conference.

The opposition in Costa Rica is understood to be based on the claim that the United States, which previously had upheld the treaty of 1858 between Nicaragua and Costa Rica which provided that neither country should ever make a treaty with another country regarding the building of a canal without informing and consulting with the other, afterwards practically ignored the existence of the Nicaragua-Costa Rica pact and proceeded to negotiate with Nicaragua without the knowledge and consent of Costa Rica.

The opposition to the protocol, it is asserted, is due largely to some anti-American sentiment which has been fed by the charge that the United States did not play square with Costa Rica.

It is understood further that certain Costa Ricans feel that Nicaragua, which received $3,000,000 under the Bryan-Chamorro treaty for her rights in the interoceanic canal route, should have been paid more generously; or at any rate that it was foolish to sell these rights so cheaply when by waiting a few years she might have been paid much more handsomely.

These opponents of the protocol fear, it is said, that Costa Rica will have to sell her rights when the time comes for less than their actual value, which they hold may be many millions above the figure which Nicaragua received.

Poetry Must Be Marxian.

The persecution of opinion in Russia is more severe than in any capitalistic country. I met in Petrograd an eminent Russian poet, Alexander Blok, who has since died as the result of privations. The Bolsheviks allowed him to teach aesthetics, but he complained that they insisted on his teaching the subject "from a Marxian point of view." He had been at a loss to discover how the theory of rhythmic was connected with Marxism, although, to avoid starvation, he had done his best to find out. Of course, it has been impossible in Russia ever since the Bolsheviks came into power to print anything critical of the dogmas upon which their regime is founded.—Bertrand Russell in "Free Thought and Official Propaganda."

Gallantry.
A young soldier from the backwoods section had been invited to a military dance and was frankly horrified at the up-to-date ways of the young women. His partner, after spending half of the dance in agony over his awkwardness, suggested that they sit out the other half of the dance, and led him to the veranda. There she drew out a gold cigarette case and remarked: "Of course, you don't mind girls smoking?" The young soldier was determined to be just as modern as she.

man of the two for the job. During the past few weeks preceding the election, a great many things were done and said that should not have been done and said. Personal issues crept into the campaign, other issues of a religious nature were shamefully and wrecklessly scattered broadcast among us. In reference to this religious issue I want to emphasize strongly so that it will be positively understood in the future and that is that as long as I am President of the Village of Tinley Park, no man, no matter who he may be, need ever expect to appear before the board with a line of bunk that is calculated to run people out of town or that carries with it any tinge of religious animosity that stirs up neighbor against neighbor in a friendly and orderly community like this. It's rotten stuff and should never have been tolerated or allowed to have been infected from the start, as a consequence of such an ill advised issue I will call your attention to the result of the vote cast which clearly shows how thoroughly disgusted the people had become in reference to this question. As I look over this audience I don't think I am mistaken when I say I might be looking into the faces of some who came near having been compelled to leave town. Don't be afraid boys. You are living in one of the best villages of Illinois, most of you were born and bred here, you help constitute our best citizenship and I'm here to tell you that you need have no fear, this town is still yours, (for the next two years at least).

Now a word in reference to the future. I shall expect the hearty co-operation of this board. If we all pull together we are going to be able to climb some very steep hills; if we don't, our village will remain standing where it is and we will have accomplished nothing. I was solicited by a majority of the people, not as a reformer, but as a regenerator, as a man who will be expected to manage the affairs of this village to the best of his ability in a fair and businesslike manner. I have no flowery policies to offer, we will not cross any bridges until we get to them, but with the co-operation of this board I will try and manage the affairs of our village in a fair honest and economic manner. Neither is it my intention to advocate any policy whereby your money will be spent wrecklessly, but where it is seen that any necessary improvement is needed and the result of such an improvement rebounds to the benefit of our community and we can see our way clear to create such improvement you will find me so progressive that you will not be able to hold me down, but will be for it heart and soul. I don't find an overabundance of money to do things with, I wish we had more so as to enable us to accomplish still bigger things however, we will do the very best we can with the limited amount at our disposal. Now I would like to say a word in reference to our more recent citizens, those who have just settled among us, be they renters or people who have come here to immediately build their homes, I want to say to them in behalf of all the good people of Tinley Park that we are glad to have you and we welcome you to our community, but I will also say to you our older citizens that it remains for us to make these people feel satisfied and contented with their immediate surroundings, show them that this is a real place, shorn of all Rip Van Winkle tendencies, a place that welcomes the stranger, a place that has a bright and prosperous future before it and above all a decent place to live in where they can all rear their children to maturity in an honorable Christian manner. As I said before, I will not start outlining any elaborate program to be followed during the next two years and we won't cross any bridges until we reach them. There is, however, one very important matter which seriously concerns the general welfare of our community that I wish to bring before this board and the people of Tinley Park at this time, a question in which every man, woman and child is vitally interested, a question upon which the people of Tinley Park expect some definite action at once on the part of this board and myself and that is the question of gambling, which is now being carried on in our village. I am almost ashamed to acknowledge that this has become so notorious that it is no uncommon occurrence to walk in and find some of our young boys fifteen to eighteen years of age and some still younger standing over and watching a game of craps or poker going full blast in which various sums of money are being exchanged and I am reliably informed that in some of these games as much as a thousand dollars or more has exchanged hands in a single night, places where a working man coming home with his two weeks pay check in his pocket can walk in and within a short time go home to his family without it. This is one of the things that is very wrong. It eats the very vitality out of any community where it takes a hold. It is disgracing our village in the eyes of all good people at home and abroad, it sets up a school of immorality for our young boys which eventually leads to their ruin and brings disgrace upon themselves, their fathers and their mothers. I am sorry that we do not have a proper place of recreation to lure our young people. We should have a playground with athletic equipment, a swimming pool, etc. so as to keep our young folks entertained at home that they would not have to run off to neighboring town to enjoy these amusements a community house on these grounds in which our young people could hold entertainments, socials, home dances, etc. It is on account of the absence of a place of this kind that we find our young boys under surroundings that breed no good. I strongly agree with a great majority of the people of Tinley Park in disapproving and doing away for all time to come with this nearly professional gambling which now exists in our midst. I want to play fair with these business men of Tinley Park, but I also expect these business men to play fair with me and with this board that sits before me.

I was approached by dozens of people before the election and my stand on this vital question was solicited I told them where I stood and you all knew it before you elected me to this office. I am here tonight to say to the people of Tinley Park that my opinion has not changed since I was elected. I made certain promises to the people that I expect to keep, one of which was my disapproval of this form of sport and if elected to see that the business and moral aspect of our village was properly piloted.

I therefore wish to announce now that effective at once and continuing the same policy as long as I occupy the office of President of the Village of Tinley Park, I shall use such power as is conferred on me by law to see that all gambling is stopped and this includes the removal of all slot machines. In granting this request of the people of Tinley Park I consider that I am doing nothing more than performing my sworn duty as mayor of your village and in doing this I am expecting all the real men and all the real women to stand with me which I know they will.

One more matter of concern which I consider proper mentioning at this time. Construction work on our new concrete road is now in progress. This has naturally brought quite a number of strangers into our village and the point that I wish to emphasize is the matter of proper policing of our streets is that our sisters, wife and mothers can pass up and down them without being insulted by having to listen to a lot of moonshine profanity. This is considered an open insult to our pure womanhood and will not be tolerated. We do not want to see a recurrence of what took place here last fall. There are a number of fine men among these visitors and we are glad to have them with us. I am not alluding to them, but naturally there are also some who are not so good. We say to those who are honorable, upright citizens and have come here to obey our laws, we welcome you to our community and we want you to make yourselves feel at home but to those who have come here to raise hell and keep this place in a continual turmoil and strife we say to them don't start anything. This also applies to any rowdies who frequent our Saturday night dances and keep this place in turmoil until the wee hours of the morning. I might say to our newly appointed chief of police who is here before us tonight, that it is up to you sir to see that proper order is kept at all times and should it become necessary I will, with the consent of this board give you such necessary assistance as is needed in fulfilling the legal performance of your duty in order that we may not again have to experience some of the disgraceful scenes that have previously occurred. I am mentioning a few of these important matters now before you all, as I do not believe in holding any star chamber sessions behind closed doors when dealing with matters of this kind. Everything done by this administration will be done open and above board, so if you wish to keep in touch with what is going on officially in your village, you men stick your pipe and tobacco in your pockets, come down to the meeting and spend an hour or so with us. I'm sure that all members of this board feel the same as I do in saying that we will all be glad to have you and furthermore we will be pleased to listen to any suggestion you may wish to make in reference to matters concerning the public welfare of our village. We know a great deal but we do not know it all and my business training has taught me never to be so narrow minded that any suggestion made by any citizen pertaining to the welfare of our village should not be weighed and given due consideration. So do not be afraid to talk to any of us concerning public matters of interest.

All the elections are now over and none on the program for some time to come, thank goodness for that. Now let us all forget the bad things that were said and done and remember only the good things. Our village now has a real start, a fine concrete road nearly finished, passing through the center of town, a fine new school house in the making, all the evidence of a real estate boom looming up in the near future, five new residences, two, those of Mayor Andres and Mrs. Hartman already completed, a twelve or fifteen thousand dollar home of Mr. John Boyer nearing completion, and two others, those of Mr. Andres and Mr. Lippencott contracted for, a fine Lutheran Parsonage a possibility, a few manufacturers flirting with the owners of our factory which is expected to be leased or sold most any time, the Public Service Co. of Nor. Ill. getting ready to submit a proposition in reference to lay gas mains into our village. This in answer to a request made by a committee of our citizens a short time ago. So you see we are facing the best prospect for advancement right now that this village has ever had. Everything looks fine and dandy. Now let us not allow the grass to grow under our feet. If you think anything of your town, now is the time to boost. Strike while the iron is hot. One of our good citizens has already suggested that we organize a Tinley Park Commercial club to be composed of our business men and such other citizens who have the interests of our community at heart, a real Tinley Park boosters' organization, and through this organization start reaching out for bigger things. I am heartily in favor of this idea. It's worth thinking about. Let us get organized, all pull together and all be real Tinley Park boosters. I will say it frankly, if we do not wake up and wake up soon, our neighboring towns will put it all over us and we will have to go way back and sit down. Are we going to do it? It's up to us gentlemen. Let us try and induce more people to bring in their families and build their homes here. We welcome them all, rich and poor alike, only one requirement necessary, that is that they be upright, honorable citizens, the other kind are not wanted. In doing some of these things I have just mentioned and if all of us will put our shoulder to the wheel and give it a good push we will then go so far you cannot stop us. Well I have really spoke longer than I intended to. In conclusion I have one request that I wish to make. I have outlined some of the policies that we expect to follow, others will be taken up from time to time in their regular order. Now in assuming the office as president of your village I'm going to ask this board here and the good citizens of Tinley Park to back me up in carrying out the policies I have mentioned and such others as will present themselves from time to time. If I am doing right you as citizens should give me a word of encouragement. If I am not, come to me and tell me about it and we will work to the best interests and welfare of our village. I thank you.

TINLEY PARK

A truck driver of the Powers-Thompson Construction Co. working on the new concrete road, had a narrow escape from serious injury if not death Monday afternoon when the truck he was driving struck a large stone at the John Funk store corner when the driver turned to short, which tipped the big truck and its load of concrete into the street. Luckily the driver managed to jump and outside of a slight injury to his foot escaped from being badly hurt. The truck was none the worse either for its spill.

Just now Tinley Park is having a measles epidemic. So far ten cases have been reported and have been quarantined, officer Walter Jorgensen placing the placards.

Mrs. Laramore was taken to the Blue Island hospital last Thursday. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

There is a new telegraph operator in town. A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson on Sunday. By a strange freak of nature the son was born on the father's birthday. This is also the birthday of Chas. Rinke, the local depot assistant.

Children's Day will be observed at the German M. E. church the first Sunday in June.

The local German M. E. and the Frankfort German M. E. churches will join in special services to be held at the latter church beginning the evening of June 1st and continuing to Sunday. Rev. Zeuner will preach at these special services.

The Ladies' Aid of the German M. E. church met with Mrs. Fred Arnold last Thursday.

Hot Fight Waged On Marketing Bill

 The forward gallery of the Chamber was packed with farmers from the Chicago district, all heartily in favor of amending the teeth out of Senate Bill No. 165 and did they clap. They made so much noise when the roll on amendment to Section 26 was announced that Representative Tice wanted Speaker Shannahan to chase the bunch of farmers out. Conrad Bormet and Clarence Cleveland of Mokena, Mr. Seehausen of Crete and Mr. Herman Wannamacher of Tinley Park were among the farmer delegates present.
 The great value of an organization was so clearly demonstrated in this fight that it is hard to understand why any milk producer in this fluid milk district should hesitate or neglect to promptly pay his Association dues. Had it not been for the existence of our Milk Producers Association, the Mokena and other loyal locals, we would doubtless soon be battling against great odds and spending thousands of dollars in an effort to save our milk checks from the clutches of the Chicago Milk Marketing Company.
 We might recall the fact that while Mokena Dairymen escaped from the ranks of the Marketing Company in time to save themselves from loss our neighboring dairymen of Crete and other locals, left an entire month's milk check when they finally pulled out.
 The members of the Milk Producers Association owe a vote of thanks to Representative Lottie Holman O'Neil of Downers Grove and Representative John L. Walker of Joliet for their able backing and continued voting in favor of amendments offered by our leader, Clarence M. Cleveland.

Orland Wins 10-2

The baseball game Sunday was a walk away for Orland. Chicago Junction evidently thought they were kids (at least that's the way they acted) Score Orland 10, the Kindergartens 2.

The play "Old Fashioned Mother" will be given by the Young People's Society of Christ Lutheran church on June 6 at Woodmen hall in Orland at 7:45 p. m. This is a play full of fun, sadness and loving kindness. Come all.

Mokena wins and loses

The Mokena baseball team was a winner and a loser Sunday. They played Frankfort and defeated them 5 to 4. They played New Lenox and lost to them with a score of 6 to 4.

ORLAND

The celebration on Sunday of the 25th Anniversary of the Christ Lutheran Church will be one of most beautiful ever witnessed in Orland. Mr. Louis Raschke has engaged high class professional singers to beautify both in the afternoon and evening. A printed program will be given everyone attending the evening services. The afternoon service beginning at 2:30 o'clock will be in German in which the well known orator and scholar, Rev. Peihler of Crete will preach the anniversary sermon.

After the sermon a wonderful duet will be sung by Miss Margaret Penberg, contralto and Mrs. Peritz, soprano. This alone ought to be endorsement enough for anyone to attend. But besides this Mrs. Dora Klenk, mezzo contralto and Miss Elizabeth Floyd, soprano, will render suitable selections. Prof. H. Proehl, a well known organ virtuoso will preside at the organ.

The evening service at 7:30 o'clock will be entirely in English. Rev. Hasserodt, the pastor of the English District of Mo. Synod, of Chicago, will render a sermon of praise and thanksgiving. Again the splendid voices of Miss Margaret Penberg and Mrs. Peritz will blend in a beautiful duet. Mrs. Bara Klenk, mezzo contralto and Miss Elizabeth Floyd, soprano will render harmonious solos.

Christ church feels proud to be able to boast such splendid orators and to be able to beautify its silver anniversary services thru the services of such highly valued singers. Christ church invites you and everybody to attend these services.

Dr. Kaylor and family of Chicago spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Kaylor.

"STOP AND START" MEN

THE incompetent locomotive engineer is known on the railroad as a "stop and start" man. He can use the brake and the throttle, but he doesn't know how to take care of his engine.

The "stop and start" man is never given a good locomotive or an important train. Life and property are too valuable to be entrusted to ignorance.

To run a locomotive a man need not have a technical education or know how to build one. But he must have a good understanding of the principle of steam power, of the mechanism of the air brake. And he must, if he is worth his salt, know how to care for his engine so that, while it is in his charge, it will be most efficient.

Every human being lives and moves in a machine far more complicated than the most modern locomotive. And ninety-nine men out of a hundred know no more about this machine than the "stop and start" engineer knows about his locomotive.

It is no wonder that so many human locomotives spend so much time in the hospital repair shop, or break down and become worthless long before they should.

How it is constructed, how it should be operated, what kind of fuel and how much of it is required for the best results—all these are profound mysteries, even to men who can conjugate Latin verbs or know the names of the Roman emperors in their order.

It is natural to desire long life. It is pleasant to look forward to a "green old age."

But these can be attained only by men who know enough about their bodily machinery to take care of it properly, and to keep it up to the work it is called upon to do.

It is not necessary or possible for everybody to study medicine. But every man can, with little trouble learn something more than how to start and how to stop his own machine.

He can learn how to feed it, how to exercise it, how to tell when something is working wrong, and when to call in the doctor, who is the technical engineer of the human railroad.

If all men would do that there would be far less work for the hospitals—which are the "shops" of human locomotives, and the doctors would find time to learn more about preventive medicine, which is the most important branch of medical science.

DAY BY DAY

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

STEP by step we walk the way,
Stair by stair we climb,
Day by day we live—today
Makes the sum of time.
All our yesterdays are done,
With their smile or tear,
All our days are only one—
And that day is here!

Day by day, as chip by chip
Sculptors shape the stone,
In the moment's fellowship,
In the hours alone,
So we shape the thing we are,
Not the thing we seem,
What the yesterdays afar,
What tomorrows gleam.

Day by day! We cannot wait
For tomorrow. We
From the present must create
All we are to be.
What we are to be depends
On no future hour,
But the hand that plants and tends
Now the opening year.

Day by day we upward go,
So we build the stair;
Do today the best you know,
Building firm and fair.
They who conquer in the strife,
They who win, are they
Who, through every day of life,
Do their best today!

LESSON FOR MAY 27

ISAIAH, THE STATESMAN AND PROPHET

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 6:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—Here am I, send me.—Isaiah 6:8.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—II Chronicles 26:22; 32:20; Isaiah 1:5; 7:1-17; 8:1-4; 9:1-7; 11:1-10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Isaiah Who Was Ready.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Isaiah's Call to Service.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Isaiah's Work for His People.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Isaiah, the Statesman and Prophet.

I. Isaiah's Vision of the Lord (vv. 1-4).

No one's ministry will ever be fruitful until he has had a vision of Jehovah. The scope of his tasks and the power to perform services will be lacking until he sees God.

1. He Saw the Lord on His Throne (v. 1). The prophet's gaze penetrated to the very throne of the eternal. We need not so much know things concerning God as to have a vision of Him, even to see Him on His throne. Surely now, as perhaps never before, with the awful darkness settling down upon the world and the foundations of culture and civilization, institutions and governments are tottering, we need a vision of the enthroned Lord.

2. He Saw the Seraphim Above (vv. 2, 3). Whatever form or rank these things have, they clearly are ministers of the Most High. Their standing indicates that they were in readiness to do His bidding. Their equipment with six wings shows the celerity with which they executed His will. In the Divine presence they find different uses for wings. One pair was needed to veil the seraph's head from the "intolerable effulgence" of the glory. One pair veiled the feet, which had been soiled in the execution of the commission. The third pair was suspended in midair while waiting to depart on any errand which the Lord willed. All ceaselessly cried, "Holy, holy, holy." The supreme attribute of Jehovah is holiness. It is for this that His creatures worship and adore Him. The treble repetition doubtless refers to the triune God. Holy is the One who created us, holy is the One who redeemed us and holy is the One who sanctifies and keeps us. From the position of God's throne they see the whole earth filled with His glory.

3. He Saw Manifestations of Majesty (v. 4). As the holy ones cried the very door posts moved and the temple was filled with smoke. Smoke indicates the Divine presence in anger (Ex. 19:8; 29:18). This indicated that the selfishness, idolatry and ingratitude of Israel provoked God's anger.

II. Isaiah's Conviction of Sin (v. 6). When the prophet got a vision of the holy God he was smitten with a sense of sin. This is always true. The reason that men think well of themselves is that they have never seen God. Face to face with the Lord, Isaiah saw himself as wholly vile. He realized that he had sinned in speech and, in fact, in heart, therefore the cry of despair. He was not only guilty himself, but was living in the midst of an unclean people.

III. Isaiah Cleansed From Sin (vv. 6, 7). Having been convicted of sin and having made confession of it, a burning coal was taken from the altar to purge away his sin. His penitential guilt was forgiven and removed. Those unclean lips were refined by fire and, with pure speech, he expressed the holy thoughts of God. Only fire from God's altar can purge us from our sins.

IV. Isaiah's Call.
God did not call the prophet until after he was cleansed. The purged soul is the soul ready for the Lord's service. Indeed, the unconvicted, unforgiven and uncleansed soul cannot even hear the Divine call for service.

V. Isaiah's Dedication (v. 8). Following the cleansing from sin there was the quick response for service. The one purged and sanctified and made meet for the Master's use readily responds to the call of God. They did not inquire as to the issue, did not desire to see the end from the beginning, but with freedom came forward to serve.

VI. Isaiah's Commission (vv. 9-13). The previous outlook was not promising. He shrank back from the responsibility and instantly cried, "How long, Lord?" The people were steeped in selfishness and the Lord assured him that their blindness and sin, though long, would not continue forever. The people would go on in sin, to be taken captive and the land be made desolate.

Economy.

The regard one shows economy is like that we show an old aunt who is to leave us something at last.—Shenstone.

Conscience.

The worm of conscience is the companion of the owl. The light is shunned by sinners and evil spirits only.—Schiller.

Neighborly Love.

Love your neighbor, yet pull not down your hedge.—George Herbert.

ALLIED ARMY MAY GO INTO CHINA

Powers Are Urged to Use Force in War Against Bandits.

BRIGANDS WELL ORGANIZED

Many of Them Served in France During the War and Learned Western Languages—Some From Good Families.

Peking, May 22.—The time has passed when parleys will accomplish anything toward release of the foreigners held captive by bandits in the mountains of Shantung. The powers must now decide whether to use force.

As a result of this opinion, held to a man by foreign representatives who have investigated the situation in the bandit area, diplomats are in close touch with their governments, discussing what action should be taken.

Foreign commercial organizations are pressing their respective legations to use extreme measures toward effecting release of the prisoners. The government having failed to reach any terms for settlement with the bandits, the matter is now squarely up to the legations.

Failing a settlement, the most favorable outlook for the prisoners, as the situation exists now, is indefinite captivity under the most trying conditions. A most serious possibility also rests in the threat of the bandits to kill their prisoners if troops harass their mountain stronghold. The brigands' ultimatum, threatening to kill two foreigners if Chinese troops are not withdrawn has expired.

Finally, the bandits' secret agents are communicating with bands throughout Shantung and adjoining provinces with a view to enlisting reinforcements—action which carries the possibility of the whole country-side being swept by bandit warfare.

Roy Anderson, the American-born negotiator, who recently made a trip to the bandit stronghold for the Chinese government, was closeted with United States Minister Schurman at the American legation.

"The bandits are excellently organized," Mr. Anderson said. "Many of them served in France during the war and learned western languages. Forty per cent of them have been bandits since childhood. The rest are from good families, but turned criminals under years of heavy taxation and government oppression."

N. Y. Bricklayers Strike for Twelve Dollars a Day

New York, May 22.—Prospects of a complete tieup of $200,000,000 worth of construction within a month if the bricklayers who went on strike remain out were seen here by employers. The bricklayers demand $12 a day. Building employers are reported to have offered $10 a day, with a bonus amounting to $2 during the present building emergency.

United States Treasury Revokes Tax Refund Ruling

Washington, May 22.—The treasury revoked its decision of two weeks ago declaring exempt from income taxation corporation dividends distributed out of profits of subsidiary earnings accrued prior to March 1, 1913. The ruling, officials said, would have resulted in the refunding of many millions of dollars in taxes.

Colorado Snowslide Kills Four at Top of the World

Denver, Colo., May 22.—A gigantic snowslide, sweeping down the mountain at terrific speed, struck the west end of tunnel No. 32 on the Denver and Salt Lake railroad, between Corona and Dixie Lake, Colo., killing four members of a working party and injuring two others.

Five Railroads Give Wage Increases of $2,130,000

Chicago, May 22.—Five railroad systems Monday announced pay increases aggregating more than $2,130,000 annually. The roads are the Philadelphia and Reading, the Bangor and Aroostook, the Central of New Jersey, the Pennsylvania and the Lake Superior and Ishpeming.

United States Fleet Is Mobilized at Shantung Port

Washington, May 22.—Almost the entire Asiatic fleet, consisting of 13 destroyers, a gunboat, a supply ship and other auxiliaries, is concentrated at Chifu, Shantung port nearest the bandit stronghold, ready for any emergency.

Americans Back Mexican Bank. Mexico City, Mex., May 22.—Arrangements for a loan of $25,000,000 to the French bankers who are financing the Mexican Bank of Issue have been completed by Mortimer Schiff and Thomas W. Lamont, who are in Paris.

Colorado Melon Crop Damaged. Pueblo, Colo., May 22.—Crops in the Colorado melon and cantaloupe district were severely damaged by rain, hailstorm and heavy wind which swept through the region. Farm land was flooded when ditches overflowed.

BACK ACHED TERRIBLY

Mrs. Robinson Tells How She Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Amarillo, Texas.—"My back was my greatest trouble. It would ache so that it would almost kill me and I would have cramps. I suffered in this way about three years, then a lady friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had better health since, keep house and am able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends as it has certainly given me great relief."—Mrs. C. B. ROBINSON, 608 N. Lincoln St., Amarillo, Tex.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for women. It relieves the troubles which cause such symptoms as backache, painful times, irregularity, tired and worn-out feelings and nervousness. This is shown again and again by such letters as Mrs. Robinson writes as well as by one woman telling another. These women know what it did for them. It is surely worth your trial.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE FAMILY

A NICE cake which is not too expensive and one which will keep for some time is:

California Pound Cake.

Cream one-half pound of butter until light and white, then add, gradually, one-half pound of sugar and beat the two until frothy. Break into the mixture, one at a time, five unbeaten eggs and beat each egg until it is thoroughly incorporated before adding the next. The success of the cake depends upon the foregoing directions. Sift one pound of flour with one-half teaspoonful of salt; slightly warm the mixture, sift again and add to the butter, sugar and eggs alternately, with one cupful of any fruit juice from canned fruit. Lastly, add one cupful of each of the following, all chopped fine: Candied cherries, blanched almonds and candied peel. Grease and flour the cake pan, and bake in a slow oven for forty or fifty minutes.

Rhubarb Frappe.

Boil three cupfuls of water and two cupfuls of sugar ten minutes; add the juice of one lemon and one quart of cooked rhubarb, strained through a colander; cool and freeze. Pour one cupful of boiling water over one-half cupful of seedless raisins; let stand thirty minutes; strain, cool and pour over the frappe just before serving. Serve with fish.

Serving 177 Cities and Towns in 15 Illinois Counties

THE Public Service Company serves a territory of 5,825 square miles, including 177 cities, towns and rural communities in 15 of the most productive counties of Illinois.

Rendering uninterrupted service to residents of such a great and prosperous area, larger than the states of Connecticut and Rhode Island combined, requires a tremendous investment in equipment and an army of employees ready at their posts through storm or sunshine, winter or summer, fire or flood, day or night.

Our customers, naturally, give little thought to the vast forces constantly at work so that by the press of a button, electric light or power is instantly forthcoming for their use, or gas made ready at the burner by the mere turn of a lever.

In the march of human progress and the constant bettering of living conditions, there is no more essential service than that which provides the home with modern comforts and makes possible the more efficient operation of industries, large or small, upon which vast numbers of men and women depend for their wage. And it is interesting to know that regardless of income this same service is available to all of our customers. The humble home owner of today is enabled to enjoy the luxury of electrical and gas conveniences which the very well-to-do could not buy fifty years ago.

Efficient public service for all of our customers is the aim of this Company. We invite constructive suggestions from our customers at all times.
